

PHOENIX ARISING IN THE CLOUDS OF BECOMING

(The Fire and the Rose Conference, Part II)

Friday April 23rd 7pm EST - Sunday April 25th Noon EST

We are in a swirl of historical events, cloudy and storming. It is in just such a world that things begin to arise phoenix-like. Out of the fire a rose appears. Out of the clouds the mythical phoenix arises. This seems to be the way that leaps in evolution (and perhaps most importantly in spiritual evolution) occur. We seem to be at a very unique and particular juncture in human history out of which a new consciousness is arising in the world.

The prophetic traditions have, at the very least, alluded to this possibility (if not predicted) just such a change in the structure of the world and in the nature of human beings. All of this is difficult to discern when you are in the midst of it, but wisdom communities arise in these critical times not only for protection and sanctuary, but also for support and strength in these evolutionary moments of axial change. Though what we each experience may be entirely different, the processes of spiritual evolution are known and we can begin to identify with and support it together.

We will explore these themes together:

- This strange time warp or “wrinkle in time” where we are experiencing acceleration and intensification of good and evil, light and darkness.
- The prophetic vision about the Unity of Being and the process of becoming.
- Levels of metanoia and metamorphic change in spiritual evolution.
- Understanding the Unity of Being while living in the exchanges of Interbeing.

- The Clouds of Unknowing: Suspended judgement and critical discernment.
- Apophenia and Pronoia: Ways of perceiving the world.
- The divine work called Theurgia.

Our work together will be the weekend of April 23-25 in a Zoom format. Lynn Bauman and Alison Hine will be guiding the seminar.

ALL ARE WELCOME. You don't need to have attended the previous seminar: the Fire and the Rose.
